

Disclosure of Transfers of Value

Bringing good health is a collaborative effort. The collaboration between the pharmaceutical industry and Healthcare Professionals (HCPs) or Healthcare Organizations (HCOs) have let to improved better medicines and benefits for patients. As an industry we may make payments or 'transfers of value' to Healthcare Professionals and Organizations to compensate them for the time spent working with us. These payments are clearly regulated and Dr. Reddy's Laboratories (UK) Ltd applies local law and the Medicines for Europe Code of Conduct. Dr. Reddy's is fully committed to data transparency and high ethical business standards and therefore discloses any payments and transfers of value to healthcare professionals, healthcare institutions or patient organizations.
