CareerLabs, a profile building EdTech startup, announces a brand new industry certification programme for chemical engineers in partnership with Dr Reddy's Laboratories Limited (Dr Reddy's), an integrated pharmaceutical company committed to providing affordable and innovative medicines for healthier lives around the world. The partnership aims at opening up avenues for students to pursue highly rewarding careers in the pharmaceutical industry and concurrently meeting the ever-increasing demand for chemical engineers to cater to the need of the hour with relevant skill development.

Towards the end of the pilot programme, successful students will be given the opportunity to pursue an internship and also be considered for possible pre-placement offers at Dr Reddy's in Hyderabad. The selection process for the first batch of students for
