The Indian markets recovered from its day's low minutes before its closing time on Monday. In this, Sensex closed nearly 1200 points recuperating at least 600 points from lows, while Nifty50 closed above 16600-mark before an important support level redeeming almost 150 points from lows.

Both the benchmark indices witnessed the biggest ever intraday fall on Monday, on the back sell-off from foreign institutional investors (FIIs) and the rising cases of new covid variant Omicron.
